Key:

C = compulsory module

E = elective module

EC = elective compulsory module

* Students must select a Projektmodul from those offered by their degree programme. Students may choose a Projektmodul in the Faculty of Art and Design or a free project (Projektmodul X), as long as it is approved and supervised by the chair of a department.

 Students must select the Fachmodul from those offered by the Media Art and Design degree programme.

 Students are free to choose any course offered by the master's degree programmes at the Bauhaus-Universität Weimar. Exceptions may only be granted on request by the examination committee.

* Students must select a scientific module from the scientific courses offered by the departments of Media Culture and Media Information Science in the Faculty of Media. In special cases and on request, the examination committee may allow the candidate to substitute this module with a Fachmodul offered by the Media Art and Design degree programme.
